Speak up when you see something wrong,
even if it's uncomfortable.

This is not just a sign of integrity.

It's a sign of leadership.

3. Uphold The Standard You Expect

Always reflect on your actions to ensure they align with your values and the expectations you have of others.

Offer to help solve issues at work or in your community, even if they don't directly affect you.

5. Choose To Act Sooner, Not Later

Prioritize tasks and tackle the most important ones first.

Be driven by the potential impact of your decisions.

6. Be Extremely Humble

Practice gratitude and always acknowledge others' contributions.

Avoid bragging about your own achievements.

7. Believe And Encourage Transparency

Communicate openly and honestly.

Share relevant information with those who need to know.

P.S. Admit mistakes openly.

8. Give Credit Where Credit Is Due

Recognize and praise others' efforts publicly, whether in meetings, emails, or social media.

Don't be stingy.

9. Be Someone Who People Can Trust

Be consistent in your actions and words.

Remember...
