I ONCE HEARD THAT THERE IS A PROGRAMMER

THAT WRITES CODE WITHOUT CHATGPT

A meme image featuring a man in the background, looking stressed with his hands covering his face, and a large polar bear head in the foreground, looking down at a chessboard. The chessboard is on a wooden table, and several chess pieces are visible. The background is a light-colored wall with a grid pattern.

The code I plan

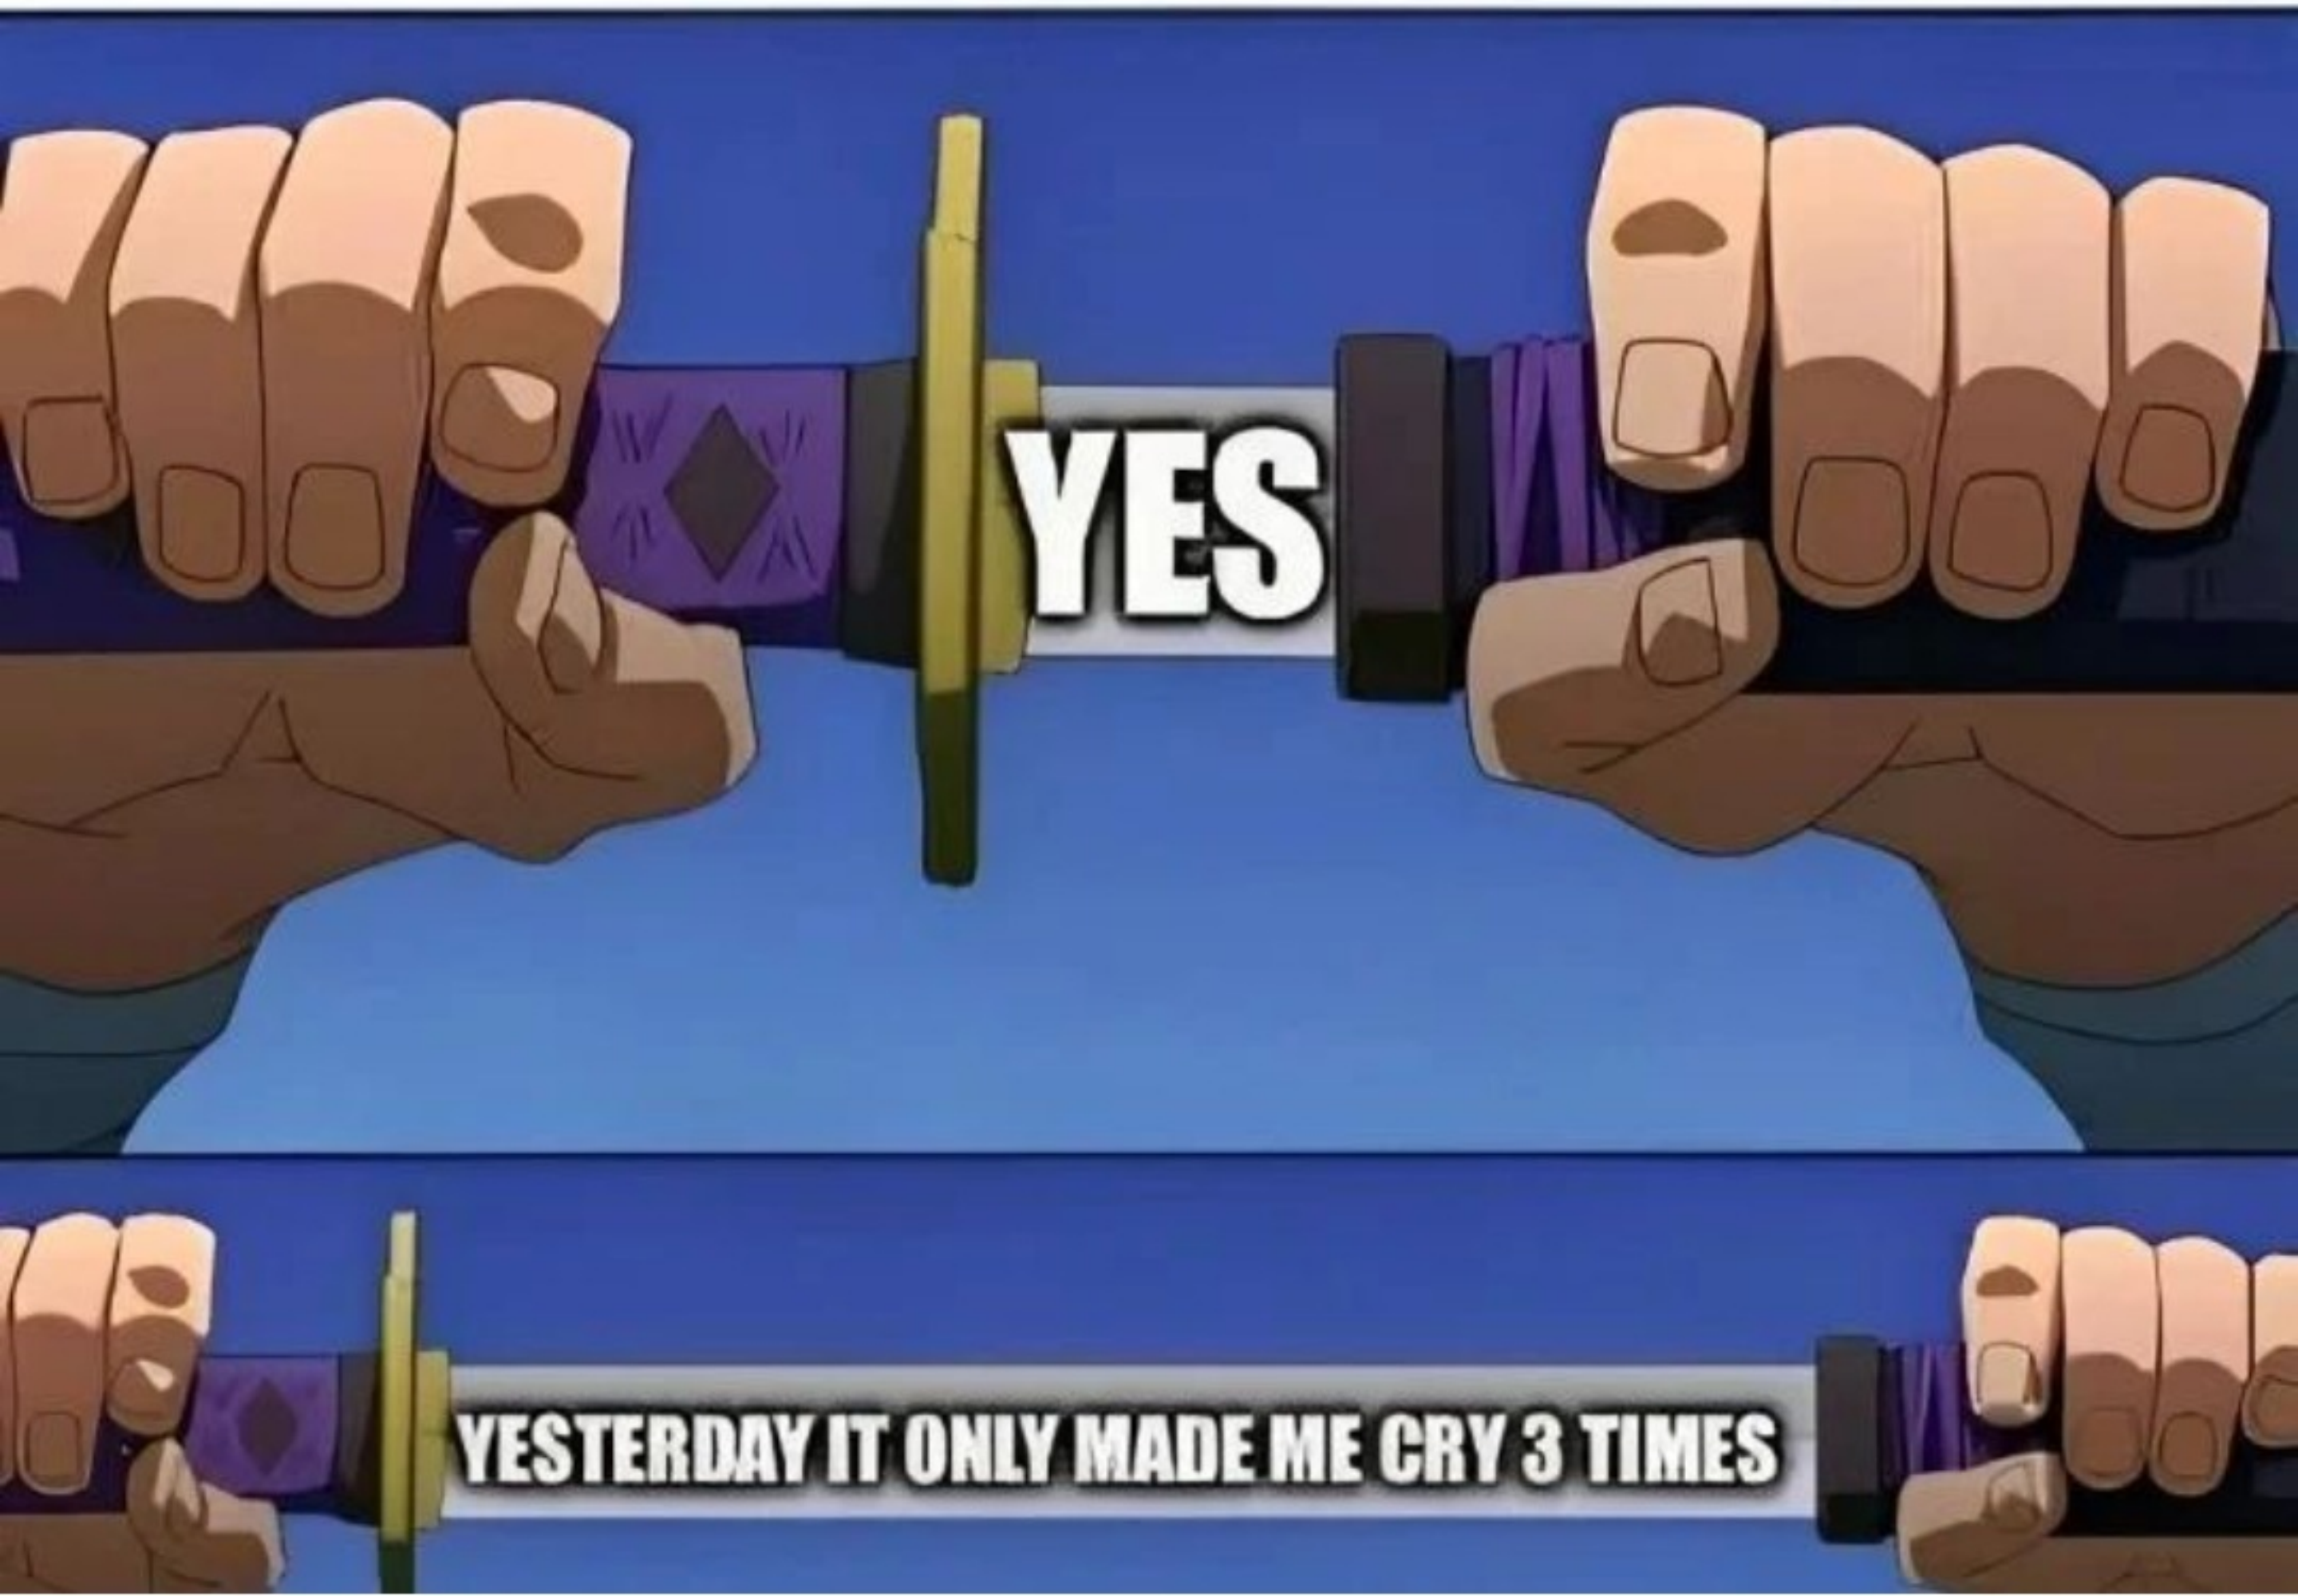

The code I think
I am writing

The code I actually write

Does writing
code make you happy?

When I wrote this code,
only God & I understood
what it did.

Now..... only God knows.
