Solopreneurs + Small Business CEOs

You might be new to social media, but you are not new to business. You've got 10+ years of experience and are either a solopreneur or CEO of a small service-based business. You get most of your business through referrals and are tired of the feast-or-famine style of business. You know you do stellar work for clients and just wish more people knew who you were and what you do. You see people with 1/4 your experience blowing up on LinkedIn and are ready to give this whole LinkedIn game a try.

I AM KASEY JONES

Your Personal Brand Consultant & Coach, Business Growth Strategist, and Personal Hype Woman

I'm a personal brand coach and consultant with nearly 20 years of experience in early-stage growth strategy, B2B sales, and personal brand development. I help CEOs and C-suite executives harness what makes them unique to build high-growth businesses with impact.

I founded A Better Jones to help founders and their teams create smart, scalable growth strategies that align with their values and vision. My background in startups and political campaigns taught me to thrive in chaos, embrace challenges, and achieve big results with limited resources.

I've partnered with brands like Gwen Stefani's GIGI, PIE accelerators, and True Venture Partners, and I've coached over 1,000 professionals to find their voice, build authority, and align their careers with their vision. The result? More income, meaning, and purpose.

MY GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Lead with Empathy

Empathy is probably the skill that could solve all the world's problems. At work, it can drive team health, happiness, and performance. And it can help you understand and connect with your buyer, while transforming your customer's experience. If there were a silver bullet, empathy would be it.

Harness your Grit

Most startups fail. Just like most New Year's Resolutions. Grit - or your ability to persevere in pursuit of a long-term goal - is what enables continuous improvement and is critical to your success. You are stronger, grittier, and more resilient than you realize. Don't let failure. Embrace it. Learn from it. Grow from it. And keep moving.

Give First

We're not in the business of strongarming, nickel-and-diming, or any other form of exploiting our lack of generosity. Nope, we aim to do good in this world and that means being generous with our time, expertise, and resources. Let us know how we can help. Find one way you can give back, every damn day.

Honest Always
When you own it honest - and we mean truly, not just here and now - you'll earn trust and loyalty from your audience, connect, learn, and grow. You can only trust to be real and honest always, even when it's hard. Practice hard conversations. Lay your cards on the table. Be vulnerable.

Strong Back, Soft Front
We don't run from truth or challenge. In fact, we welcome both, but we do so with an open mind and an open heart. You need to be tough to make it in this world, but you also need to be kind.

The hard way is the easy way
Short cuts lead to poor results. Slow down the work in service of the long-term vision in mind. You find insights slow and deep in the short term, but it accelerates growth for the duration. The best things in life are the result of hard work, discipline, and consistent commitment.

MAKE INVESTORS, PARTNERS, AND PROSPECTS BEG TO WORK WITH YOU.

Are you a CEO or executive ready to become better known for the work you do so you can grow your business, expand your impact, and attract career-changing opportunities?

We should talk!

I coach, consult, and advise founders, executives, and their teams to define the vision for their future, tap into their unique strengths, and finally build the online authority their work deserves.

Some of the Ways I Can Help You Create a Business with Impact

1. Build Your Digital Authority

Accelerate your business growth and make a bigger impact on the audience you serve by establishing yourself as an expert in your field.

2. Stop Overthinking, Start Taking Action

Don't wait on the sidelines—stop overthinking your personal brand strategy and start becoming known as your industry's go-to expert.

3. Discover Your Online Voice

Build an authentic personal brand that generates meaningful revenue and opportunities, making you feel like the badass you truly are.

4. Cultivate Powerful Connections

Create an inner circle of influencers and super-connectors to supercharge your business growth and validate your industry influence.

5. Find Clarity and Create a Plan

Gain clarity in your vision for the next phase of your business, career, and life so you can develop a bulletproof plan to achieve it.

DON'T TAKE IT FROM ME

(Listen to what Seth Rosen has to say)

"After following Kasey for a while and being impressed by her ability to create consistent, engaging, and valuable content, I began working with her on building my own content. She's given me simple, actionable advice on how to continue to grow my business through authentic content."
